Mark 1: 3-4

When Jesus was thirty, a strange man appeared in the desert wearing camel clothes and eating grasshoppers and wild honey.

His name was John the Baptist. He called on people to repent and to be baptized because the Savior would come.

'I am here to prepare someone who comes after me!'

Jesus also came to be baptized by John the Baptist.

“Look! the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!”

When Jesus was baptized by John , a voice came from heavens with the Holy Spirit descending on him like a dove: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

John the Baptist did not exalt himself.
He devoted his life to introducing Jesus

Jesus chose the twelve disciples

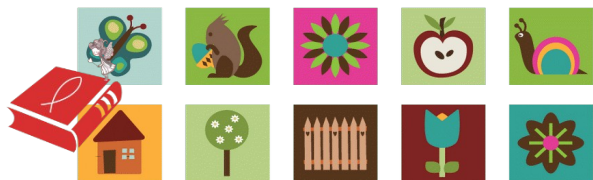

Bible Kids

Today's Word

One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God. When morning came, he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles:

Luke 6: 12-13

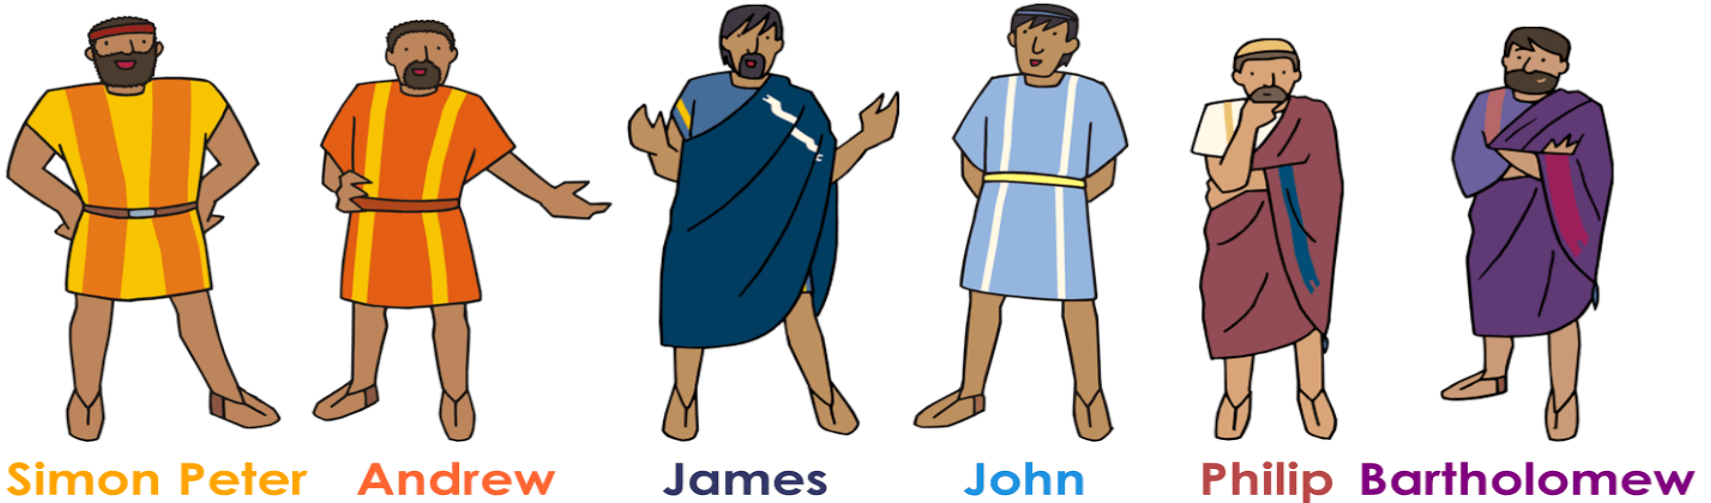

There were a lot of people who heard and followed Jesus. They went with Jesus and learned from Jesus

After praying, Jesus specifically chose twelve of them as close disciples.

They were chosen to live with Jesus, to preach the gospel, and to drive out demons.

The disciples were a variety of people: some of them were fishermen, a tax collector, a revolutionary, some of them were hot

But Jesus prayed to God to choose his disciples well, and he chose them well, took good care of them, and taught them

This is why Jesus chose his disciples: 1) to teach them the word of God, 2) to make them preach the gospel according to what they have learned, and 3) to make them proclaim the power of the kingdom of God. For these reasons, Jesus chose his disciples. We are also disciples of Jesus. Our work is the same as the work of the twelve disciples of Jesus. Let's live a disciple's life starting today.

Jesus is walking on the water

Bible Kids

Today's Word

When they had rowed three or three and a half miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were terrified.

But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid."

John 6: 19-20

While Jesus was praying on the mountain by himself, his disciples were rowing the boat to the across the lake.

At last, it was dark and the wind and the waters grew strong and rough.

“Look at there! Someone is walking on the water!” They were terrified. One of them cried, “Someone is walking on the water!”

“It is I: don’t be afraid!” It is Jesus who is walking on the water.

They were surprised at this. They welcomed Jesus on the boat. They thought, “Jesus must be the son of God!”

Walking on water is something no one can do.

But Jesus walked on the water
to find his disciples.

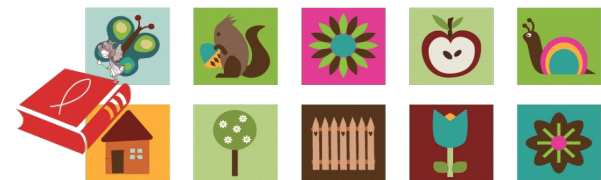

Because Jesus is a special man,
the son of God.

We really need to believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

Peter's Confession of Christ

Bible Kids

Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Matthew 16: 16

One day, Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and one of the prophets."

"But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus said with great joy. "You're right about your confession! On this rock I will build my church!"

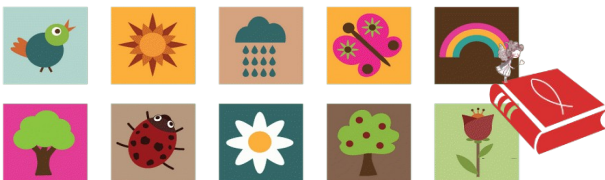

Peter knew exactly who Jesus was,
and he confessed exactly about
Jesus.

And after hearing this Jesus praised
Peter for his right confession.

Who do we think Jesus is?

The Story of the Foolish Rich Man

Bible Kids

"But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

Luke 12:20

“Jesus said, “A man's life has nothing to do with what he has.”

And Jesus told us a story.
It's about a foolish rich man.

The rich man was happy to build a bigger warehouse for his wealth and grain. "I've collected a lot of food in the warehouse, my soul, and my family will be safe!"

Then God told the rich man.
"You are a fool! If I take your life today, whose property will all your riches be?"

Jesus finished talking and said,
"Don't store up wealth for you, but for God. Do your best to help those in need."

Today's Lesson

What is your money used for?

Is it being used only to satisfy only you?

Money should be used for the glory of God.

We are the people of the kingdom of God. Therefore, it is necessary for us to help people in need with our own money.

Who is Jesus?

Jesus..

Jesus is the owner of all life, and of all wealth.

Today's Quiz

The Story of Good Samaritan

Bible Kids

Today's Word

"Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"
The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

Luke 10: 36-37

While a man was walking alone, he met robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half

Then a priest happened to see him on the way, he passed by on the other side. So did a Levite, too.

Thirdly, a Samaritan happened to see him. The Samaritans were people the Jews didn't like.

But, the Samaritan took pity on him, so treated and took care of him well.

Jesus said: "The people of God, at any time, must be a good neighbor who helps those who are in need."

Today's Lesson

The priest and Levites seemed, on the surface, close to God, but they did not love anyone else.

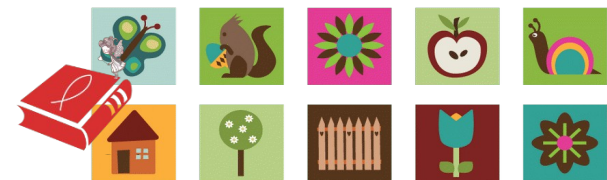

The Samaritan, on the surface, seemed not to be close to God, but was a good neighbor who was willing to love others.

We should also be those who help our neighbors in need if we are close to God.

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is..

We are the ones who are forced to die for our sins, just like those who have been robbed.

But Jesus is the one who saved us from this terrible situation.

Today's Quiz

away from her."

Luke 10: 42

Jesus was invited to the house of Mary and Martha.

While Martha was busy working, Mary listened eagerly to Jesus.

"I can't believe Mary let me work alone when I'm so busy," thought Martha.

Eventually, Martha complained to Jesus. "Jesus, please let Mary go. I have too much work to do alone."

Jesus said, "Don't do too much. Mary likes to listen, so she'll keep listening."

Martha thought it was not right for Mary to listen to Jesus when they had a lot of things to do.

But Jesus taught them that listening to Jesus was more precious than anything else.

The time to listen and learn the Bible is the most precious time for us.

We should not be deprived of time to listen to and learn from the Bible.
